

Rosanne Hawke Books with Cornish Content

Books are available from local bookshops, online or the publisher

Younger Readers

Wolfchild, Stone Table Books, (2003) 2017.

Historical fantasy, set in 1099.

Cornish culture & legends.

- CBCA Notable Book, Younger Readers, 2004.
- Shortlisted for the Aurealis Awards, 2004.
- Commended in Holyer and Gof Awards, Cornwall, 2004.

Across the Creek, Stone Table Books, 2017. (2004).

Cornish folklore and ATSI content.

- Winner of the Holyer an Gof Award for Children's Literature, Cornwall, 2005.

Kerenza: A new Australian, Omnibus/Scholastic, 2015

Historical fiction set in 1911, SA Mallee.

Migration, farming, sustainability.

Sailmaker, UQP (2002) 2013. Book 2.

Mystery/adventure set in coastal South Australia.

- CBCA Notable Book, Younger Readers, 2003

Young Adult

Flying Blind, Rhiza Edge, 2022

Cornish-Australian culture, set on coastal Yorke Peninsula, South Australia.

Identity, being you, manipulative friendship, gaslighting, spiritual growth, family.

Zenna Dare, Rhiza Press, 2014 (2002).

ATSI content, reconciliation

Cornish identity/cultural identity, set in country SA.

- Shortlisted for the Caleb Award for YA Literature, 2015

The Messenger Bird, UQP, 2012.

Set in the author's home in country SA.

Grief/ adjusting after a death.

Cornish folktales. Cornish and Australian culture.

- Winner of the Holyer an Gof Award for Children's & YA literature, Cornwall, 2013.
- Winner of the Ann Trevenen Jenkin Cup for authorship for Chn's & YA literature, Cornwall, 2013.